

Regional Group & eQ Homes say "Thank You" to essential worker Superheroes

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OTTAWA, ON, June 15, 2020 /CNW/ - eQ Homes and Regional Group have joined forces in a Superhero Golf Day campaign to celebrate and thank essential workers for their service during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Superhero Golf Days at eQuinelle every Tuesday from June 23rd - September 8th (CNW Group/eQuinelle)

The two companies have joined together to create a way for people to thank their local "superhero" by nominating them for a day of golf at award winning eQuinelle in Kemptville, ON. The opportunity is open to all nominees for a full VIP golf day experience. Not only for established golfers, the campaign includes a session with one of the club's golf pros to introduce the sport or hone existing skills.

"We wanted a way to express our gratitude to all essential workers – from frontline hospital, fire, and police, to the delivery people, the postal and construction workers, the farmers, grocery store clerks, and more – all of whom have worked tirelessly," says Josh Kardish, Vice President of eQ Homes.

The intent behind the campaign is to provide an easy and fun way for people to publicly acknowledge essential workers who have gone above and beyond in making life easier during COVID-19. People are encouraged to nominate their favourite Superhero through social media or online at <http://www.equinelle.ca/superherogolfdays>

The campaign will run throughout the golf season, from June 8 – September 8th, 2020. Each week 8 golfers will be drawn at random to participate in a day of golf.

"We saw a great opportunity to say, "Thank You" and offer a well-deserved break for essential workers who have continued to put their personal health and safety on the line every day. eQuinelle is a beautiful place and we're so grateful to be able to sponsor Ottawa's Superheroes for a day of sunshine and golf," says Dave Wallace, COO of Regional Group.
